REGULATIONS

For the International Research Competition
"Digital Discovery"

Ekaterinburg
2024

1. General provisions

1.1. These Regulations (hereinafter referred to as the Regulations) regulate the procedure for organizing and conducting the International Competition of Scientific Research Works “Digital Discovery” (hereinafter referred to as the Competition).

1.2. The competition is held within the framework of the Eurasian Economic Youth Forum (hereinafter referred to as the EEYF) and is implemented at the main site of the EEYF - at the Ural State University of Economics (hereinafter referred to as the USUE site), within the framework of the Congress of Management and Law; as well as on foreign and regional EEYF platforms that have chosen this Competition. The list of foreign and regional sites that have chosen this Competition is indicated on the Competition page of the Congress of Management and Law of the EEYF website, as well as on the pages of the foreign/regional sites themselves on the EEYF website.

The Internet address of the EEYF website is www.eurasia-forum.ru

1.3. Organizer of the Competition:

Federal State Budgetary Educational Institution of Higher Education "Ural State University of Economics" (Ural State University of Economics), Department of Civil Law.

1.4. Co-organizers of the Competition:

Universities-organizers of foreign and regional EEYF platforms that have chosen this competition for implementation at their sites.

1.5. Competition partners:

– Ural branch of the Free Economic Society of Russia.

1.6. The purpose of the Competition is to improve the quality of training of specialists, stimulate students' interest in their chosen profession and research activities in the field of economics and law.

1.7. Objectives of the Competition:

– identify the analytical potential of young lawyers and financiers;
– stimulate the process of exchange of knowledge, ideas, experience in using mechanisms of legal regulation of economic processes;

– ensure the integration of youth science with the global research environment;

– to develop skills in conducting comparative legal research, developing recommendations for improving legislation.

2. Scientific areas of the Competition and content requirements research work

2.1. Scientific directions of the Competition:

1. Legal foundations of the digital economy of Russia and the EAEU countries.

2. Digital legal relations in Russia and in the countries of the EAEU: type, content and comparative analysis.

3. Law and digital economy of Russia and the EAEU countries: comparative analysis.

4. Digitalization of legal relations in Russia and the EAEU countries: a challenge of our time.

5. Regulatory regulation of the digital environment in Russia and the EAEU countries.

2.2. The choice of topic is determined in accordance with the approximate topics of scientific research works (Appendix 1), and an independent topic can also be proposed, taking into account the scientific directions of the Competition.

2.3. Scientific research should include a comparative legal analysis of the legislation of the Russian Federation and the EAEU countries.

2.4. Based on the results of the study, recommendations should be proposed for improving the legislation of the Russian Federation, taking into account the experience of foreign countries. The result of the study may be proposals for harmonization of legislation that will contribute to the development of the economy of the future.

2.5. The study is divided into the following structural units: introduction, analytical part, conclusion, bibliography.

Introduction is the part of the document that defines its goals and objectives; it may indicate acts in accordance with which, for example, it is necessary to develop a framework or model normative act.

The analytical part is a comparison of the legislation of different countries on the chosen topic. The analytical part can be divided into chapters. Due to the peculiarities of the topic of the Competition, it is recommended to fill out a comparative table (Appendix 2), which characterizes the legislation of Russia and other countries selected by the researcher independently.

Conclusion - reflects the results of the study, systematizes the identified problems of legal regulation and determines the ways of development of the legislation of the Russian Federation, taking into account the experience of foreign countries.

3. Conditions of participation in the Competition

3.1. Students of educational organizations, academic institutions and other interested organizations in Russia and foreign countries under the age of 35 are invited to participate in the Competition (hereinafter referred to as the Participants).

Works prepared by young scientists - graduate students and candidates of sciences - are not accepted for the Competition.

3.2. Completed research works, completed individually or collectively (in teams of up to 3 people), are submitted to the Competition.

3.3. One participant (one team) has the right to submit only one work to the Competition.

3.4. Works of participants that do not meet these requirements will not be accepted for participation in the Competition.

There is no registration fee for participation in the Competition. Expenses for accommodation of non-resident participants, food and transportation expenses for participation in the full-time stage of the Competition are paid by the participants themselves or by sending organizations. The exception is the winners of foreign/regional competition sites.

4. Stages and timing of the Competition

4.1. The competition is an annual event and is held during the summer semester. The final dates for the Competition, as well as its main stages, are established by order of the rector of the chairman of the EEYF organizing committee - the rector of USUE and are published on the Competition pages of the EEYF website.

4.2. The competition is held in three stages:

4.2.1. The first stage (until March 20, 2024 inclusive) – acceptance and registration of competitive research works; checking the work for compliance with the requirements for the work.

The first stage is carried out by the organizing committees of the Competition of the relevant sites:

- organizing committee of the main site of USUE;
- organizing committees of foreign/regional venues.

If less than 10 research works are received at a foreign/regional site, then the Competition at this site is considered not to have taken place, and the received works participate in the competition of the main site of USUE on a general basis.

4.2.2. The second stage (qualifying) (from March 21 to April 1, 2024) – examination of competitive research works registered and admitted to the Competition based on the results of the first stage. Determining the finalists of the Competition from the USUE site and the finalists of the Competition from foreign/regional sites.

– Conducting the qualifying stage at the USUE site

The examination of scientific research works received through the USUE site is carried out by the expert commission of the USUE Site Competition. The commission selects in absentia from 10 up to 15 finalists. The final number of finalists from the USUE site depends on the actual number of finalists from foreign/regional sites of the Competition. The list of finalists who made it to the finals of the Competition is published on the Competition page of the Congress of Management and Law of the EEYF website.

– Conducting qualifying stages at foreign/regional competition sites

The examination of competitive works at the EEYF sites is carried out by expert commissions of foreign/regional Competition sites. Expert commissions select 5-10 best participants in the national/regional round of the Competition. On April 1, 2024, the organizing committee and the expert commission of the foreign/regional site of the Competition will conduct a full-time defense of the selected works and determine the winner and prize-winners of the national/regional round of the Competition.

The winner (first place) of the national/regional round of the Competition becomes a finalist in the international final of the Competition. He is given the opportunity to participate in the finals of the Competition and other final events of the XIV EEYF on April 23-25, 2024 in person. Payment for travel and accommodation is provided by the main organizer of the EEYF - USUE.

Participants who took 2nd and 3rd place will be solemnly presented with certificates and memorable gifts at a foreign/regional site on April 25, 2024.

The general list of finalists of the international final of the Competition is formed from the finalists from the USUE site and the winners of foreign/regional sites that have chosen this Competition. The general list of finalists of the Competition is published on the EEYF website, on the Competition page of the Congress of Management and Law from April 1 to April 10, 2024.

4.2.3. The third stage (final) (April 24-25, 2024) – defense of competitive research papers of the international final of the Competition; determination of the winners of the Competition; rewarding

The third stage is held between the finalists of the international final of the Competition through a public in-person defense of competition works. Defense of works remotely, using online communication, is carried out in agreement with the organizing committee of the Competition.

4.3. Based on the results of the Competition, the main organizer of the EEYF publishes a collection of abstracts of scientific research works of the Competition finalists. The collection is published in the form of the corresponding chapter of the annual collection of EEYF materials no later than 4 months after the Competition. The collection of EEPM materials is posted in the RSCI, on the USUE website and on the EEPM website.

5. Registration of participants, requirements for submitted documentation and rules for registration of scientific research works

5.1. Research works are submitted to the Organizing Committee of the Competition in electronic form through a special registration form on the EEYF website www.eurasia-forum.ru.

– participants of the main site of the Competition, when registering, choose: USUE Site – Congress of Management and Law – “Digital Discovery” competition;

– participants of foreign/regional platforms, when registering, choose: The name of the corresponding site is the “Digital Discovery” competition.

5.2. To participate in the Competition the following package of documents must be submitted:

1) the author’s statement about participation in the Competition (Appendix 3) – is submitted by filling out the participant’s registration form on the EEYF website.

If the work is prepared by a team of authors, one of the authors is registered as the team captain and attaches the work and abstract of the work, the remaining participants are registered as team members. The first file they attach is a file with the title of the work and a list of authors, the second file may be empty.

2) competition work (with a title page in the form of Appendix 4) – attached as a separate file to the participant’s registration form;

3) abstracts of the work reflecting the main provisions and results of the work (requirements for the execution of abstracts of the work are indicated in Appendix 5) - attached as a separate file to the participant’s registration form.

The absence of any of the documents specified in clause 5.2. within the prescribed period is grounds for refusal of admission to participate in the Competition.

5.3. Research work must meet the following requirements:

1) the work must correspond to the scientific areas of the Competition;

2) reference material is required: links to sources from which quotes are used, numerical data in the text, tables, graphs, diagrams, bibliography (at least 12 sources);

3) the work must be original, the percentage of originality of the text is at least 60%;

The text is justified without hyphenation. All charts and tables must be inserted into the text. Paragraph indent – 1.25. Sheet orientation is portrait. About the amount of work: 20-45 pages;

– the list of used literature is drawn up in accordance with GOST 7.0.100-2018. Footnotes to the text are given in square brackets indicating the source number in the list of references.

Typical work structure: introduction; three chapters (theoretical, analytical, recommendatory); conclusion and list of references. Disclosure of parts of the work structure is indicated in clause 2.3, clause 2.4., pp. 2.5. Provisions.

5.4. The thesis must be prepared for the work, reflecting the general idea of the work. Abstracts should be formatted as follows: line spacing 1.5 on A4 sheets, font Times New Roman, size 14 pt, margins 20 mm on each side. The volume of abstracts is no more than 3 pages. The originality of the abstract is at least 70%. The text of the abstract must have an abstract, keywords, and information about the supervisor. A sample design is provided in Appendix 5.

6. Criteria for evaluating research work

6.1. The competitive selection of scientific research works of the Competition is carried out by the Expert Commission of the Competition.

6.2. Criteria for evaluating research work at the second (qualifying) stage:

– paperwork – up to 20 points;

– relevance of the research topic and its compliance with the scientific directions of the Competition – up to 10 points;

– content of the study: the presence of a detailed comparative legal analysis, logic, scientific style and literacy of presentation; presence of applications, illustrations – up to 40 points;

– practical significance of the research results, availability and validity of recommendations for improving current legislation – 20 points.

– level of originality of the text – up to 10 points

Maximum score – 100 points

6.3. Criteria for evaluating participants during the full-time defense of work at the third (final) stage:

1) logic and persuasiveness of presentation – up to 10 points

2) presentation – up to 10 points;

3) defense (answers to expert questions) – up to 30 points.

6.4. To determine the results, the scores of the qualifying and final stages are summed up. The maximum total score is 150 points.

6.5. If the winners or prize-winners of the Competition have the same (equal) number of points, the decision to determine the winners and prize-winners is made by the Expert Commission of the Competition.
