	REGULATIONS of the international competition research work “Problems of state building and citizens’ rights”	Edition 1

1. General provisions

1.1. These Regulations (hereinafter referred to as the Regulations) regulate the procedure for organizing and conducting the International Competition of Scientific Research Works “Problems of State Building and Citizens' Rights” (hereinafter referred to as the Competition).

1.2. The competition is held within the framework of the Eurasian Economic Youth Forum (hereinafter referred to as the EEYF) and is implemented at the main site of the EEYF - at the Ural State University of Economics (hereinafter referred to as the USUE site), within the framework of the Congress of Management and Law; as well as on foreign and regional EEYF platforms that have chosen this Competition. The list of foreign and regional sites that have chosen this Competition is indicated on the Competition page of the Congress of Management and Law of the EEYF website, as well as on the pages of the foreign/regional sites themselves on the EEYF website. The Internet address of the EEYF website is www . eurasia - forum . ru

1.3. Organizer of the Competition:

Federal State Budgetary Educational Institution of Higher Education "Ural State University of Economics" (Ural State University of Economics), Department of Constitutional and International Law.

1.4. Co-organizers of the Competition:

Universities-organizers of foreign and regional EEYF platforms that have chosen this competition for implementation at their sites.

1.5. Competition partners:

– Ural branch of the Free Economic Society of Russia.

1.6. The purpose of the competition is to increase students' interest in their chosen profession and stimulate interest in research activities in the field of public administration and law.

1.7. Competition objectives:

– identify the analytical potential of young lawyers, economists and managers;
– stimulate the process of exchange of knowledge, ideas, experience in using the mechanisms of legal regulation of public relations;
– ensure the integration of youth science with the global research environment;
– to develop skills in conducting comparative legal research, developing recommendations for improving legislation.

2. Scientific directions of the Competition

2.1. The choice of topic is determined based on the approximate topics of the competition works (Appendix 1). The topic can also be proposed independently, taking into account the scientific direction of the competition “Problems of state building and citizens’ rights.” The competition work may be a comparative legal research and include a comparative legal analysis of the legislation of the Russian Federation, countries of Asia, Africa, Latin America (3-5 countries). It is also possible to conduct a comparative legal analysis of the legislation of the EAEU and BRICS countries.

2.2 Based on the results of the study, recommendations should be made to improve the legislation of the Russian Federation and law enforcement practice. When conducting comparative legal research, proposals and recommendations should be formulated taking into account the experience of foreign countries. The result of the study may be proposals for the harmonization of legislation in different countries, which will contribute to the development of the state and public administration in the future, international cooperation of individual countries on issues of state building and citizens' rights.

2.3. The study is divided into the following structural units: introduction, main part, conclusion, bibliography.

Introduction is the part of the document that defines its goals and objectives, methods, and information base for the study. It may indicate acts in accordance with which, for example, it is necessary to develop a framework or model normative act.

The main part provides for the formulation of the problem, a possible path and results of its solution, which should be based on an analysis of legislation and law enforcement practice. For comparative legal research, it is necessary to compare the legislation of different countries on the chosen topic. The main part can be divided into chapters. Due to the specifics of the competition topic, it is recommended to fill out the table (Appendix 2), which summarizes proposals for improving legislation and (or) characterizes the legislation of Russia and other countries selected by the researcher independently.

The conclusion contains a brief summary of the results of the study, systematizes the identified problems of legal regulation and law enforcement practice, determines the ways of development of the legislation of the Russian Federation, taking into account the experience of foreign countries (for comparative legal research).

3. Conditions of participation in the Competition

3.1. Students of educational organizations, academic institutions and other interested organizations in Russia and foreign countries under the age of 35 are invited to participate in the Competition (hereinafter referred to as the Participants).

Works prepared by young scientists - graduate students and candidates of sciences - are not accepted for the competition.

3.2. Completed works performed individually or collectively (in teams of up to 3 people) are submitted to the competition.

3.3. One participant (one team) has the right to submit only one work to the Competition.

3.4. Works of participants who do not meet these requirements will not be accepted for participation in the competition.

3.5. There is no registration fee for participation in the competition. Expenses for accommodation of non-resident participants, food and transportation costs for participation in the full-time stage of the competition are paid by the participants themselves or by sending organizations. The exception is the winners of foreign/regional competition sites.

4. Stages and timing of the Competition

4.1. The competition is an annual event and is held during the summer semester. The final dates for the Competition, as well as its main stages, are established by order of the chairman of the EEYF organizing committee, the rector of USUE and are published on the Competition pages of the EEYF website.

4.2. The competition is held in three stages.

	REGULATIONS of the international competition research work “Problems of state building and citizens’ rights”	Edition 1

4.2.1. The first stage (until March 20, 2024 inclusive) – acceptance and registration of competitive research works; checking the work for compliance with the requirements for the work.

The first stage is carried out by the organizing committees of the Competition of the relevant sites:

- organizing committee of the main site of USUE;
- organizing committees of foreign/regional venues.

If less than 10 competitive works are received at a foreign/regional site, then the Competition at this site is considered not to have taken place, and the received works participate in the competition of the main site of USUE on a general basis.

4.2.2. The second stage (qualifying) (from March 21 to April 1, 2024) – examination of competitive research works registered and admitted to the Competition based on the results of the first stage. Determining the finalists of the Competition from the USUE site and the finalists of the Competition from foreign/regional sites.

– Conducting the qualifying stage at the USUE site

The examination of competitive works received through the USUE platform is carried out by expert commissions of the Competition of the USUE site. Commissions are selected in absentia from 10 up to 15 finalists. The final number of finalists from the USUE site depends on the actual number of finalists from foreign/regional sites of the Competition. Lists of finalists who made it to the finals of the Competition are published on the Competition page of the Congress of Management and Law of the EEYF website.

– Conducting qualifying stages at foreign/regional competition sites

The examination of competitive works at the EEYF sites is carried out by expert commissions of foreign/regional Competition sites. Expert commissions select 5-10 best participants in the national/regional round of the Competition. On April 1, 2024, the organizing committee and the expert commission of the foreign/regional site of the Competition will conduct a full-time defense of the selected works and determine the winner and prize-winners of the national/regional round of the Competition.

Winner (first place) of the national/regional round of the Competition becomes a finalist in the international final of the Competition. He is given the opportunity to participate in the finals of the Competition and other final events of the XIV EEYF on April 23-25, 2024 in person. Payment for travel and accommodation is provided by the main organizer of the EEYF - USUE.

Participants who took 2nd and 3rd place will be solemnly presented with certificates and memorable gifts at a foreign/regional site on April 25, 2024.

The general list of finalists of the international final of the Competition is formed from the finalists from the USUE site and the winners of foreign/regional sites that have chosen this Competition. The general list of finalists of the Competition is published on the EEYF website, on the Competition page of the Congress of Management and Law from April 1 to April 10, 2024.

4.2.3. The third stage (final) (April 24-25, 2024) – defense of competitive works of the international final of the Competition; determination of the winners of the Competition; rewarding

The third stage is held between the finalists of the international final of the Competition through public in-person defense of bills. Defense of projects remotely using online communication is carried out by decision of the Organizing Committee of the Competition.

4.3. Based on the results of the Competition, the main organizer of the EEYF publishes a collection of abstracts of the finalists' works. The collection is published in the form of the corresponding chapter of
