REGULATIONS

For the International Website Building Championship «IT-Constructor»

Yekaterinburg
2025

1. General Provisions

1.1 This Regulation (hereinafter referred to as the “Regulation”) sets out the procedure for organizing and conducting the International Website Construction Championship “IT-Constructor” (hereinafter referred to as “the Competition”).

1.2 The Competition will be held as part of the Digital Eurasia Congress of the Eurasian Economic Youth Forum (EEYF).

1.3 The organizers of the Competition are:

- Ural State University of Economics (hereinafter “USUE”), Scientific and Educational Center for Information Technologies.

1.4 Co-organizers of the Competition:

Universities that are organizers of foreign and regional EEYF sites have chosen to host this competition on their platforms. A list of foreign and regional websites that have selected this Competition can be found on the Digital Eurasia Congress page of the EEYF website and on the respective foreign/regional EEYF websites.

1.5 The aim of the competition is to encourage the implementation of innovative initiatives by young professionals in the fields of website design, web development and analytics.

1.6 Objectives:

- Identification of talented young people and determination of their future development potential;
- Involvement of young people in the design, planning, launch and analysis of a website;
- Analysis of positive and negative aspects in project development;
- Identification and dissemination of best practices in organizational management system design, implementation of corporate ethics and culture through the analysis of team processes and outcomes.

2. Subject of the Competition

The subject of the competitive assessment is an Internet site on a given topic developed within the allotted time of the competition by the participating team.

3. Conditions of participation in the Competition

3.1. Teams consisting of students of all forms of education, graduate students, scientists of educational organizations, academic institutes and other interested organizations in Russia and foreign countries under the age of 35 (hereinafter referred to as Participants), no more than 4 people, are allowed to participate in the Competition.

3.2. Each participant must register on the official website of the EEYF.

3.3. There is no registration fee. The costs of accommodation for nonresident participants, meals and transportation costs for participation in the face-to-face stage of the competition are paid independently by participants or organizations.

4. Stages and timing of the Competition

REGULATIONS

For the International Website Building Championship "IT-Constructor"

Edition 8

4.1 The Competition is an annual event, and the final dates and main stages are determined by the order of the Rector of Ural State University of Economics.

4.2 The competition will be held in two stages:

4.2.1 The first stage will involve the acceptance and registration of application forms for participation in the competition. This stage will take place within the timeframe specified by the Directorate of the Eurasian Economic Youth Forum, and the lists of participating teams for the second (full-round) stage will be published on the competition page of the EEYF website. In case a team member is unable to attend the competition in person due to any reason, the captain of the team may substitute them with another participant meeting the requirements outlined in Section 3 of these Regulations.

4.2.2 The second (full-time) stage involves completing the task of creating a website based on a topic chosen from those proposed by the organizers. This stage also includes the determination of winners and prize winners.

4.3 Participation in the competition can also be done using remote technologies. Registered participants will have access to USUE's cloud resources based on the Microsoft Office 365 platform, and will connect to interactive sessions as part of the events through teams created within Microsoft Teams.

5. Requirements for registration of participants

5.1 At the first stage of the competition, participants submit an online application for participation through the EEYF's website, www.eurasia-forum.ru. For participants from foreign/regional sites, the application can be submitted from the foreign/regional page of the EEYF website. Each team member of a participant submits their application (Appendix 1) by completing the online registration form on the EEYF website. The team captain registers under the name "captain", and indicates the team's name/motto in the "topic of work" field. The other team members register under their own names, also indicating the team's name/motto.

5.2 The application must be submitted within the specified timeframe on the EEYF website.

6. Criteria for evaluating competition works

6.1. During the second (in-person) stage of the Competition, the expert commission of the competition evaluates the final work of the competitors - the created website according to the following criteria:

- practical feasibility and social significance - 30 points;
- creative implementation (design) - 30 points;
- originality of thinking - 20 points;
- website presentation - 20 points.

6.3. The expert commission makes a decision based on the sum of points.

6.4. If the winners and runners-up of the Competition have the same number of points, the decision to determine the winners and runners-up remains with the Expert Commission of the Competition.

6.5. The expert commission has the right to award individual teams with special nominations.

7. Competition Management

REGULATIONS
